

To Deacon Eric Meisjford.

Thank you for taking time to talk to me yesterday. I know how busy you are. I am faxing you the book cover for David Gibbs' book. "Fighting for Dear Life: The untold story of Terri Schiavo."

David Gibbs was one of the endorsers for "Fighting for David". "Fighting for David", backs up everything the Schindler family wanted to do for their precious daughter, but never could. I can't imagine the pain their family went through all those years watching Terri deteriorate. They had to stand back with their hands tied, completely helpless to do anything for her. . What a tragedy!! It is my prayer that these two books run together, so that the full realization of what really happened to Terri would be brought to light, and never be forgotten.

Respectfully Yours.
