"Peaceful" Muslim Demonstration in London

This should be a wakeup call for the free world but too many have their heads buried in the sand

Muslims have stated that England will be the first country they take over!

These are pictures not shown on American TV or in American Newspapers but were forwarded to me by a Canadian friend who thought Americans ought to know!

These pictures are of Muslims marching through the streets of London during their recent "Religion of Peace Demonstration."

Why would anyone think that we should be at war
with such nice, peaceful Muslims!
Americans need to Know -
You need to forward this one!
