

IN MEMORY OF TERRI SCHAIVO

The proceeds from this book will be going to help support Shepherd's Door in Portland, OR.

The purpose of this book is to give encouragement to others who suffer various afflictions, especially women who have been victims of violence, neglect, or mental abuse. This wonderful facility enables women, with shattered dreams and desperate needs, an opportunity to regain independence for themselves and their children.

I ache for the Schindler family who had to stand by and watch their precious daughter, Terri Schiavo suffer the cruelest neglect I have ever witnessed at the hands of the man who vowed to "love and cherish her" as well as the Florida Courts who failed to protect her.

God created our brains to be able to re-organize in different degrees depending on the severity of the injury, if they are given therapy and a loving environment. In my opinion, she was denied both of these, even though she had a wonderful family who would have given anything to give to her what we have been able to give to David: a chance to get better.

Though David is still handicapped, we praise God everyday for the miracle of watching him continue to make progress.
